Attorneys for Plaintiff
EXPEREXCHANGE, INC.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

EXPEREXCHANGE, INC. a California
Corporation, DBA: EXPEVISION, Plaintiff,

vs.

DOCULEX, INC., a Florida corporation;
CARL STRANG, an individual; TERRY
MORGAN, an individual; DAVID BAILEY,
an individual; JIM GREBEY, an individual;
DAVID GRIFFITH, an individual,
Defendants.

Case No.: CV-08-3875 JCS

REQUEST FOR TELEPHONIC
MEET & CONFER IN DISCOVERY DISPUTE

The Court's standing order in discovery disputes requires an in-person 10 business days meet & confer notice. I gave opposing counsel, who is located in Santa Monica, California, an 8 business day notice when he would be in San Francisco, anyway, but he used the 10 day requirement to avoid the in-person requirement of the court.

In view of the cost of such an in-person meeting, when counsel is located in Santa Monica, California, which I expect to be unfruitful in any case, I respectfully request the Court to

1 allow a telephonic appearance to satisfy the in-person requirement for a meet & confer in a 2 discovery dispute.
